

GLIMPSES

PUBLISHED SIX TIMES PER YEAR BY GLIMPSES OF GRACE.

Spread the Word

Our first issue of Glimpses has been well-received. We believe people are being blessed by the articles we carry. A friend, Rudy, from Florida, says the publication is spiritually encouraging and informative.

We do not endorse or recommend many things such as products or services or ministries. But something very special happened during a recent weekend, and it is worth noting. With all of the corruption, self-serving, and other problems in Washington, D. C., a very positive thing has begun there.

One of our editors and his wife toured the brand-new Museum of the Bible in the downtown area, just a few blocks from the Capitol.

The museum is located in an amazing, six-story building with displays, films, and artifacts. In addition, the musical, Amazing Grace, was presented during the opening weeks. It is the story of John Newton, writer of the hymn. The drama and the museum are top-notch.

One special room captured the eyes and hearts of the visiting couple. In a part of the sections of the round room, there were displays representing the languages where the Bible has been translated.

Films in the room showed people from many nations, reading the Bible in their native language. Other films showed huge crowds, excited and celebrating the arrival of the Scriptures in their language.

But covering most of the room, there are walls of shelves containing books naming languages without the Bible. There were hundreds of languages without the Scriptures.

There are over 900,000 chapters waiting to be translated. We don't often pause to thank God that we have the Bible in our own language.

The visitors can never forget what they saw and heard.

Read Glimpses as we seek to share the teachings of God's Word. Read the Bible.
